PROPERTY SALES.—Messrs. O'Neal & Lane to-day sold for Mr. S. F. Beach, executor of W. N. McVeigh, deceased, and for Mr. M. H. Beach, commissioner, the following property:

The two-story brick house at the corner of Cameron and Alfred streets by J. R. Purcell for $1,015.
 The dwelling adjoining to J. R. Purcell for $905.

Fifteen lots in the square bounded by Washington, Columbia, Jefferson and Greene streets to J. R. Purcell for $751.
 Two lots in the same square to M. Lawler for $85.
 One lot in the same square to Wm. Jayne for $89.
 The other property offered for sale was withdrawn.

MUSICAL.—That the complimentary remarks of the Alexandria Musical Association will hold favor with the lovers of music, was shown by the large audience that assembled at its rooms last night.

The programme of ten numbers, four for orchestra, four for brass and reed instrument, and two vocal numbers was finished at half past nine. The selections were well chosen and pretty, but the association has done better.

The orchestra suffered much by a lack of string instruments, and the rendition by the band in several instances appeared ragged. It may have been, as is sometimes the case, with even professionals, "an off night" with our amateur, perhaps caused by a lack of confidence. The soloists were Miss Emily Lucie, violin; Mr. Henry W. Nails, euphonium, and Mr. Geo. H. Evans, vocal.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with five prisoners and nine lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Napoleon Jasper, colored, for an assault on Mary A. Lee, also colored; Mary Lee, colored, for disorderly conduct, and Eliza Walker and Betty Carter, both colored, for stealing coal from the R. & D. depot, were fined $1.50 each.

A young man, charged with disorderly conduct on the local train, was fined $2.50.
 Wm. McAdams, charged with an assault on Hattie Nelson, colored; a young white man, charged with an assault on Minnie Wood, and two white men, charged with disorderly conduct, were discharged.

WEDDING.—Razette Chapel, at Philomont, was the scene of a very pretty marriage on Wednesday. Miss Lila Van Sickle and Mr. O. Chamberlin, of the above place, were married by the Rev. Mr. D. Lee. The attendants were Miss O. Dillon, Mr. G. L. Van, Miss E. Chamberlin, Mr. Chamberlin, Miss L. Orringer, Mr. J. C. Chamberlin, Miss D. Brown and W. Chamberlin. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling dress. After the ceremony they left on the noon train for an extended northern tour with the best wishes of their many friends. Among those present were Miss Orrison, of Front Royal, and Mr. A. R. Emerson, of this city.

BAPTISTS.—As will be seen in the church notices, the Baptist Church of Falls Church will worship to-morrow morning with the Baptist Church of this city and their pastor will preach. A very excellent meeting was held recently at the Falls Church church, and as a result a number of persons are to be baptized. The church there is yet has no baptistry, and so they were invited to worship with the church here and administer the ordinance. The visitors will be entertained at dinner in the homes of their Baptist brethren here and return to Falls Church in the afternoon.

RECOVERED HIS HORSE.—Judge J. K. M. Norton yesterday rode out to Fairfax county to enjoy a day's hunting. His hunting horse to a fence rail he started across a field and soon had a shot at a bird. The report of the gun, however, caused the horse to become frightened, and breaking his bridle he ran off, and Judge Norton was compelled to walk home. This morning a small colored boy brought the horse to this city, saying he had found it stray on the road. Judge Norton was soon apprised of the recovery of his horse and rewarded the boy for his honesty.

BANQUET.—Refuge Court I, Sons of Jesus, gave a banquet last night, which was attended by a large number of its old members, besides many prominent members of the order from Washington. Among those present were Supreme Chief Ryan, P. S. C. Deal, and others of equal prominence. The taste in arranging the tables and delicacies displayed by the ladies was excellent, and the report highly enjoyed. Speeches were made by the visitors and also by Messrs. Saml. Townsend, Brooke Arnold and others. The guests left on the late train.

STRUCK THE CONDUCTOR.—A young gentleman of this city while on his way home from Washington yesterday evening on the local train with a friend, took exception to the manner in which the conductor spoke to the latter and remonstrated with him for his conduct. The conductor, the Alexandria says, thereupon became insolent and was struck by the latter. When the train reached this city the conductor of the local train arrested on a charge of assault, and this morning the Mayor imposed a fine upon him of $2.50.

ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY.—A meeting held at Falls Church on Thursday night looking to the establishment of an electric light plant at that place. An organization was perfected, when the following officers were elected: E. A. Greenough, president; M. C. MacGowan, vice president; T. R. Gordon, secretary and manager; J. A. Parry, treasurer, and R. W. Moore, attorney for the company. The cost of the plant is to be about $10,000 and the capacity is to be 350 incandescent lights and 6 arc lights.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.—A very pleasant entertainment was given last night at the Railroad Rooms by the ladies' committee. The attendance was good, and the musical programme rendered by several well known ladies and gentlemen of the city was highly appreciated. After the singing coffee and other refreshments were served in a manner that reflected great credit upon the lady managers, who have been untiring in their efforts to make the rooms attractive. The meeting was altogether a success.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.—The Alexandria Dramatic Club will give an entertainment at Paul's Hall on Tuesday evening next. The comedy selected is "Toodles," and the cast is as follows: Toodles, Dr. Frank Hecker; Mrs. Toodles, Mrs. Marian Cavalier; Farmer Anson, Mr. Lewis C. Barley; Mary, Miss Lucy Kimsey; George, Mr. William Waller; Lawyer Gibbs, Mr. G. H. Taylor; Geo. Robinson, and D. Brooken.

MEMORIAL CHAIR.—A child's invalid chair was received at the R. & D. for the Sick yesterday for the Baptist co. A silver plate fastened on the back is inscribed Elsie L. Howard. Mrs. Charles Howard, of Alexandria, sent it in loving memory of her little girl, who died last February. It will ever be a source of comfort and pleasure to the ill-fated children of the ward, among whom are always some who cannot walk.

THE ART SCHOOL.—The teachers of the art school in Peabody Building say that much disappointment will be avoided if, for the present, at least, no more applications are made. There are now twenty-eight students in regular attendance, and the room can accommodate no more unless some vacancies occur. Those now in attendance have begun well, working regularly and quietly, and show a fair average of talent.

A KINDLY REMEMBRANCE.—Mr. William Lyman, formerly of this city, but now of California, has sent to a lady of this city twenty-five dollars with the request that the money be devoted toward furnishing some of the poor children of his native city with a portion of the good things of the holiday season.

DECEASED IN VACATION.—Judge Keith, of the Circuit Court, has entered a decree in vacation in the case of John Roberts vs. the Agent and Women's Home Society, confirming the sale recently made of the old Friends' meeting house property at the corner of St. Asaph and Wolfe streets to Mr. R. G. Brecht.

NASHVILLE, TENN., April 8, 1890.
Radam's Microbe Killer Co.
 Nashville, Tenn.:

Gentlemen—My wife has been suffering for several years with an ovarian tumor; has been treated by our best physician and has been tapped twice. In July last the doctor said they would have to use heroic measures and perform an operation which was very dangerous. Having heard of the Microbe Killer we would not consent to the operation until we had given it a trial. I procured a jar of ointment and she has been using it very rapidly ever since. She has been reduced in size nearly three inches, seems strong and well, and is able to do her own work. I am now feeling a most wonderful medicine and believe it will do all you claim for it. Respectfully,
 H. P. POLK

Is Consumption Curable?
 Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to resume the work on my farm. It is the fastest medicine ever made."
 Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Christmas horn-blowing has begun. The law against rolling back wheelbarrows on the sidewalks is being entirely ignored.

One of the handiest cabinets of silverware ever seen in this city is in the window of Mr. J. Duffey, 324 King street. It is ordered for a citizen of Montana and consists of 43 pieces of sterling silver in a beautiful oak cabinet lined with sky-blue satin.

Mr. Robert Porter recently had shipped from Russia three horses for use on his farm near Manassas, but owing to a very rough and long voyage they all died before reaching here. These animals were of the finest breed, and cost their owner three thousand dollars apiece.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.
 New York, Dec. 20.—The stock market retained its holiday and strictly professional character this morning, the dullness being most intense, while the dictations were insignificant in almost every case. The opening was made generally at unchanged prices from those of last evening. The market after 11 o'clock showed improvement in the amount of business done, and among the active firms to the dealings, and among the active stock slight advances over opening prices were scored. These were no feature of special interest in the trading, however, and the market finally closed quiet but firm at something better than first prices.

BALTIMORE, December 20.—Virginia consols — 104-100 — do 3s 63-64.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Dec. 20.—There are no changes in the markets to-day. Flour is firm and fairly active. Wheat is strong and in light receipt, with a range of all classes running from 88 to 100 per bushel. Corn is steady at
